Meetings of the Squadron Executive Committee (the Bridge) are normally held on the third THURSDAY of each month at 1900 in the Sidney North Saanich Yacht Club, except in July, August, and December. All members of the Squadron are welcome to attend.

The Beacon is our official newsletter. We also maintain a website www.sppss.org. We suggest you check the site regularly for notices of upcoming events, stories, classified ads, etc. or to download The Beacon electronically. ## COMMANDER'S CORNER

This is my last writing of the Commander's Corner and I would like to thank all members of the Bridge for their support over the last two years. I would also like to thank the instructors, proctors, student cruise skippers and everyone else who make this squadron work.

The Nominating Committee of past Commanders Ken Clarke, Gay Miller, and I have filled all positions with the exception of Secretary, Supply Officer, and MAREP (Hydrographic) Officer.

I wish to thank those members who came forward and volunteered for vacant positions as advertised in the last Beacon and by our Communications Officer. If you would like to volunteer for the remaining positions, please call Commander-Elect Ralph Hodd (652-1715) as he can appoint to positions after May 5th.

Planning is well under way for the District Annual Meeting, starting with a Meet & Greet on the evening of May 2nd and the actual AGM on the 3rd, both at the Mary Winspear Centre in Sidney. Our Squadron is holding a joint Graduation and AGM at 1700 on May 5th at the Sidney North Saanich Yacht Club. Please come out and support the new Bridge, and also welcome the new graduates to our squadron.

As I say in all these issues, please hoist the CPS flag and keep it flying.

Rapture of the Deep
(Terminal)

“Rapture or the Deep: Also known as nautical narcosis. Its symptoms include an inability to use common words, such as up, down, left, right, front, and back, and their substitutions with a variety of gibberish which the sufferer believes to make sense; a love of small , dark, wet places; an obsessive desire to be surrounded by possessions of a nautical nature, such as lamps made from running lights and tiny ship’s wheels; and a conviction that objects are moving when they are in fact standing still. This condition is incurable.”

STUDENT CRUISE – SPRING 2008

March 2nd was a mixed, weather day for the boating class student cruise to Otter Bay; sunny in the morning and calm, then cloudy with wind in the afternoon. Seven boats and nine proctors volunteered their services for fifteen students.

Otter Bay Marina kindly allowed us to use their facilities once again. Saanich Marine Rescue gave a safety presentation and a person overboard demonstration. Two skippers, Don Armstrong and Campbell Black, gave the docking and anchoring demonstrations respectively. Thank you again to all the skippers and proctors for volunteering their boats and time.

Classroom learning to practical experience

Anchoring demo by Skipper Campbell

The cruise is a great way to meet other squadron members and help the students with an excellent practical exercise. Skippers and proctors are always needed for the cruises; please contact the student cruisemaster if you can help. The next student cruise will be in late October or early November.

MAKING OF AN ATLANTIC CRUISE PART 4

This article is the fourth and final in a series giving an account of the preparation and making of a voyage across the Atlantic Ocean in May 2007.

Our stay in Horta in the Azores was 3 days whether we liked it or not due to a gale that would not abate. Horta harbour was filled to capacity with sailing boats waiting out the gale. After rejecting several slips in the marina that would have been impossible to get into on arrival due to the wind, we ended up rafted 3 deep on the sea wall. The skipper made frequent trips to an internet cafe to download weather report. This provided a leisurely re-provision, repair and maintenance period and time to visit the local sights.

We would have departed Horta early on May 26th but the skipper had to join the long queue of skippers at the customs & immigration office. We finally departed at 1350 hours UTC. Due to wind on the nose we ended up motor-sailing up to the NW tip of São Jorge Island where I verified its latitude of  $38^{\circ}45.3'N$  to substantiate my MAREP report that the Azores were out of position on CHS chart 4090. (Beacon July/Aug 2007 and Canadian Yachting Sept 2007).

At dusk we rounded the southern tip of Graciosa Island and set a NE course. This was further north than the  $67^{\circ}$  rhumb line course to A Coruña, Spain but the skipper wanted to get sling shot north of a high pressure east of the Azores and south of an intense low forming south of Iceland; we did not want to get becalmed in the high. We were also aware of the north wind of the Portuguese Trades and the southerly current off the west coast of Spain & Portugal.

We followed the NE course til the morning of May 29th sailing on either a beam or a broad reach and winds light to moderate. This was a new experience after beating most of the way from Norfolk, Virginia. We now adopted a course of  $77^{\circ}$  having achieved latitude  $41^{\circ}N$  and for the next three and a half days maintained this course to within 6NM generally in light winds on a broad reach. The only exception was a strong wind on the evening of May 29th when we got pooped by a wave breaking over the top of a large swell right on the transom while I was at the helm...

I had the choice of putting up my foul weather gear hood or keeping both hands on the helm to prepare for a potential broach. Needless to say, I got very wet!

In the afternoon of June 1st the skipper was satisfied that we had sufficient northing at latitude 44.3°N that we could start heading ESE for A Coruña. As we approached the coast of Spain, the wind got lighter; in fact the Portuguese Trades were none existent. The visibility decreased and when it got under 5 miles we had the radar on all the time. The main shipping lanes from northern Europe to Gibraltar and the south were crossed at dusk on June 2nd. In two 3 hour watches we sighted 10 vessels in each with up to 5 freighters on collision courses at any one time. We shortened sail in 1 to 2 mile visibility in what little wind we had as we did not want to arrive in an unfamiliar port in darkness.

It was at this time that I learnt that with all the modern navigation aids, one has keep asking oneself if all the information received makes sense as a whole. I saw 4 mast head lights close together but only one radar image on a collision course. The lights separated into 2 groups which I watched very carefully, but still only one radar image. The second radar image did not appear till just over a mile away, presumably a low vessel with a narrow bridge.

At 0727 hours on June 3rd we picked up the range south of Basuril Reef to enter A Coruña harbour still in 1 NM visibility, docking at Nauta Coruña Yacht Club at 0820 hours after a textbook sail from Horta covering 1023NM.

Would I do it again? Decidedly, given the right vessel, skipper and crew.

EDITOR'S COMMENTS:

REGARDING SNSYC USE BY SPPSS MEMBERS - For those of you who don't have email, I sent out the following in regards to the invitation that I posted in last month's issue of The Beacon:

Adrian Kershaw, Vice Commodore at SNSYC, has written to say that he got a bit carried away with his open invitation to use the SNSYC bar and restaurant facilities at any time! He says that he'd been overcome with a surfeit of goodwill during the Christmas period and those warm fuzzies hung on into February. However, in the cold light of winter he's been brought to his senses and needs to moderate his offer somewhat.

He says that "SPPSS members are, of course, invited to use the SNSYC facilities for Squadron events and during our joint SPPSS/SNSYC lecture series. As to the rest of the time, SPPSS members are welcome as guests when accompanied by SNSYC members in either the bar or the restaurant. And, I apologise if I raised expectations - however well intentioned, it was an error on my part."

He says that next time you meet him don't be surprised if he's wearing sack cloth and ashes! He also says that he'll buy any SPPSS member a drink at the SNSYC bar through until the end of May - if you can catch him!

VICTORIA ARMADA – MAY 31ST - "Armada Hosts" Len & Dawna (656-6450) and Ron & Janice (384-6588) have been busy organizing the overnight trip to Victoria's Inner Harbour! They are almost at their limit for boats but could accommodate a few more. Don't miss out on this fun-filled, informative trip. Give them a call to reserve your spot or if you have any questions.

BRIDGE MEMBERS – I personally would like to thank outgoing Bridge members Dawna, Warren, Bryan, Kathy, and Carolyn for their time and efforts, and the fun they brought to this Bridge. Past Commander Gay, I wish you wonderful cruising ahead, after so many years spent in so many capacities on the Bridge! Last but not least, thank you Commander John for your two years of being at the helm and serving the squadron so well! I look forward to serving with the new members and hope some more people will come aboard to help continue the smooth sailing of the Saanich Peninsula Squadron!

Safe boating!
